Dear 4 Paws 1 Heart Team,

Congratulations on being recognized as a 2026 Macomb Daily Best of the Best winner in the Best Charitable Organization category. This distinction reflects the trust and support you have earned from the Macomb County community and is a testament to your commitment to excellence.

The success of Macomb County is built upon the dedication of the businesses, organizations, and professionals who serve our communities each day. Through your hard work, commitment to quality, and service to others, you have made a meaningful contribution to the lives of those around you. Being selected by members of the community makes this recognition especially significant.

Your achievement is a reflection of the positive impact you have made and the confidence your customers, clients, and neighbors have placed in you. I hope you take great pride in this well-deserved honor, and I wish you continued success in the years ahead.

Congratulations once again on being named a 2026 Macomb Daily Best of the Best winner in the Best Charitable Organization category. If my office or I can do anything for you or your team, please do not hesitate to reach out at (586) 498-7122.

Sincerely,

Representative John James
Member of Congress (MI-10)
